Cancellation or Modification of the Meeting Due to Force Majeure

In the event of a force majeure situation, CCI Europe reserves the right to alter or cancel the Conference without prior notice, including any change of the time and/or venue of the event.

Any occurrence of force majeure event shall be communicated as soon as reasonably possible from the decision time.

Force majeure includes any circumstance beyond the reasonable control of CCI Europe which prevents or impedes the realisation of the meeting. This includes but is not limited to, government action, war or hostilities, riot or civil commotion, plague or other epidemic such as SARS, COVID-19, bird flu, earthquake, flood, hurricane, cyclone, fire or other natural physical disaster, explosion, accident or breakdown, strike, lack of the usual means of transportation or terrorism.

CCI Europe shall not be liable for any direct or indirect, incidental or consequential, punitive or exemplary damages, losses, expenditures or any other inconveniences or costs caused by such modification or cancellation of the conference.

Invitation letter for visa application

Attendees must have registered and paid the required registration fees before requesting an official letter of invitation, should it be required for their travel.

To request a letter for visa application, please contact conference@ccieurope.eu.

Please note that the visa letter only aims at assisting participants who need to obtain a visa or permission to attend the Conference and it is not a commitment from the organisers to cover any type of expenses or to provide any financial support.

Photographs and videos

Please be aware that pictures and videos are taken at the Conference. If you do not want to be photographed or filmed, please let the photographer know or let CCI Europe know by sending an email to conference@ccieurope.eu.

Data Privacy and Security

We take your privacy very seriously and in order to comply with GDPR consent requirements, we need you to confirm that you agree with our new Privacy Policy during the process of registering for the annual Conference. You can view it here.

Social programme

The CCI Europe Networking event is organised for Friday June 18, 2027 at the Vienna City Hall. Additional social programme might be available based on funding.
